The Lost Puppy

One sunny afternoon, Sarah went for a walk in the park with her puppy, Buddy. They played fetch and ran around happily. But as they were heading home, Buddy suddenly saw a squirrel and ran off into the bushes. Sarah called for him, but he didn't come back. She looked everywhere, but Buddy was nowhere to be found. Sarah started to feel worried and sad.

She asked some people in the park if they had seen Buddy, but no one had. Sarah decided to make some lost puppy posters to put up around the park. She drew a picture of Buddy and wrote, "Lost Puppy: Answers to Buddy. Please help me find him." Sarah hoped that someone would see the poster and bring Buddy back to her.

Days went by, and Sarah didn't give up hope. She went to the park every day, calling out for Buddy and checking the posters. Then, one morning, as she was putting up a new poster, she heard barking. Sarah turned around and saw Buddy running towards her, wagging his tail with joy. She couldn't believe it! Buddy was back, safe and sound. Sarah hugged him tightly, grateful to have her lost puppy back home.
